

PIYUSH JAIN

Manager - International Trading

A professional with graduation in commerce and Post Graduate Diploma in Marketing has proven his skills in different segments of products and services. He is passionate towards his work with experience of more than 30 years.

At Shivangi International he is very well connected with our different buyers and sellers spread over the globe. His networking ability assists him to connect with the requirements of our clients and work diehard till the execution of the deal including negotiations on prices and contract terms beneficial for both the buyers and sellers.

He has started his carrier as Professional Service Executive in Pharmaceutical Industry handling Stockiest & Consignee Agents in various Indian States and established as a Divisional Sales Manager for North India.

His capability in handling multiple tasks and projects simultaneously and readily acceptance of challenges brought to Logistic Industry, whereby he worked as a Branch Manager to control operations of North Eastern and South Eastern regions of company. He has successfully managed and simplified processes for company owned container trains and business with CONCOR India Ltd.

His Self-motivation and leadership quality has made him successful in the field of Marketing and sales.